Alberta Water and Wastewater Operators are expected to act honestly, competently and with integrity, with a view to ensuring the safety of human health and for the protection of the environment.

In support of these expectations, the Alberta Water and Wastewater Operator Certification Program’s Examination Code of Conduct (“the Code”) is to be adhered to by applicants throughout the certification examination process.

I agree to follow all written and verbal instructions provided by the examination proctor at the certification examination session and I agree to refrain from participating in any of the following activities or practices:

- falsifying information or documentation for the purposes of obtaining a Water and/or Wastewater Operator certificate;
- cheating in order to aid myself or another person to pass a certification examination;
- copying examination content by any method;
- removing any of the provided examination materials from the examination room; and
- possessing or using any non-authorized materials or equipment during an examination, such as, but not limited to, cell phones or other electronic devices (except for non-programmable calculators).

By checking the box on the application form, I understand that any violation of the terms of the Code will lead to disciplinary actions, which may include, but are not limited to: being asked to leave the exam, the voiding of my examination results, my being barred from writing future certification examinations, or suspending or revoking my certificate.
